Our Commitment To Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. At Nalistar S. A. we are aware of the confidence our suppliers have placed in us when they provide us with information, and we have taken on the commitment and responsibility to protect your information.

Nalistar S. A. complies with the principles of privacy and security to process outside parties' information, established by Uruguayan Law N° 18331 "Personal Data Protection and Habeas Data Action".

The Information We Collect:

On the English section of our Web site, we chiefly collect three different types of information, company information, contact information and product information, from our suppliers. All this information is received through our "Application for Supplier's Registration".

Nalistar S. A. does not collect any sensitive information, such as, data related to your racial or ethnic origin, political preferences, religious or moral convictions, organizational affiliations or information concerning your health or sexual life.

The Way We Use Information:

The company information is used to identify and login the supplier to our data base, which is the first step in our supplier's certification process. We do not share this information with outside parties, except to the extent necessary to complete a trade operation.

The contact information submitted in the "Application for Supplier's Registration" is absolutely confidential, and is intended to identify the supplier's main directors.

The product information is used as a quick reference about the kind of products and services offered, as well as the commercial activity the supplier has previously undertaken in our market. This information will not be disclosed to outside parties.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive and to send information about the products and services we require. However, if you prefer not to receive information at this address, we will delete it from our records. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

We may use statistical non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website and to share with advertisers, but we will not disclose anything that could be used to identify individuals.

All the pictures and information about our customers and/or suppliers published on our Web site, have been included at the request of the interested parties and with their previous authorization. Nalistar S. A. reserves the right to remove the pictures and/or information without prior notice. The owner of the information is responsible for its content and accuracy.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online, in ways unrelated to those described above, without also giving you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Our Commitment To Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

How You Can Access Or Correct Your Information

You can access all your personally identifiable information that we collect and maintain online, by calling our data base manager at 598-2-3557341 or 42. We use this procedure to better safeguard your information.

You can correct factual errors in your personally identifiable information by sending us a request that credibly demonstrates error.

To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.
